

CHAPTER 5

THE HEALTH SERVICES OFFICER AWARDS

The Stanley J. Kissel Award

The Stanley J. Kissel Award was instituted in 1990 to recognize an outstanding health services professional whose career accomplishments and work performance have resulted in outstanding contributions to the health of the Nation and to the mission of the Public Health Service. The award is presented annually at the USPHS Professional Association meeting.

This award was established in memory of CAPT Stanley J. Kissel, M.S.W. At the time of his death on active duty in 1989, he served as Chief, Social Work Department, at the Clinical Center of the National Institutes of Health. His notable contributions to the field of social work and to the Commissioned Corps are remembered and honored through this award.

The Stanley J. Kissel Award is presented to a member of the Health Services Officer category or equivalent civil service professional who has made a significant impact on the Nation's health. The work can be at the state, regional, national, or international level, but must demonstrate a significant impact on the health of the Nation. Nominations must also include evidence of leadership in the achievement(s) being cited, and must describe how the officer serves as a role model to others.

Nominations must include:

- (1) Nomination cover sheet
- (2) Narrative, not to exceed 3 pages (font size 10 or 12), that describes: (a) the nominee's achievement(s) and the impact on the Nation's health, and (b) the leadership of the nominee in the achievement(s) being cited and how he/she serves as a role model to others
- (3) Current curriculum vitae

Nominations for the Stanley J. Kissel Award are solicited at the beginning of the year and are due in early spring. Information on the award process and due dates are sent electronically to all Health Service Offices, and is published in the Commissioned Corps Bulletin and the Health Services Reporter.
